Bob is a partner in the Litigation Group and former member of the firm's Management Committee. He currently concentrates his practice in commercial litigation where he handles a broad range of business matters involving commercial contracts, banking, construction, commercial landlord-tenant disputes, complex collections and fiduciary fraud. Before joining the firm in 1997, Bob was a program manager for General Electric Aircraft Engines.

Bob serves as litigation counsel for a variety of local and national companies, including banking and financial institutions, manufacturing companies, construction companies and professional service firms. He works with clients to create efficient and cost-effective resolutions of commercial problems and disputes.

Bob is currently in his fourth term as elected town counsel for the Town of Clinton.

Bob has been named a Massachusetts "Super Lawyer" by Boston magazine and Law & Politics every year since 2014.
